

NS Advising Alert April 2, 2021

Happy Friday Bobcats, check out the latest news and updates!

Advising news & updates

- Monday, April 5- Friday, April 16, 2021: Fall 2021 Registration
- Tuesday, April 6, 2021: Course Withdraw Deadline

Second year students who have active Jumpstart Advising holds-required to meet with an academic advisor within their current school's major during their fourth semester at UC Merced. Jumpstart advising can be completed through walk-ins or appointments with an Academic Advisor . Check their office hours and availability to determine which best meets your needs.

When meeting with an advisor or advising mentor, you must have the following:

- A completed Graduation Plan (for remaining coursework) in MyDegreePath
- Using MyDegreePath, complete a graduation plan which includes all of your remaining graduation requirements (you can find resources for how to create a Plan through Graduation here)

You are expected to have your plan completed, prior to your appointment/walk-ins

- Mid-Semester grades Reminder:

If you have one or more mid-semester grades of D+, F or NP (no-pass), now is the time for action! You will receive an email around Friday March 19, providing information on academic support resources. Depending on your mid-semester grades, you may also be required to meet with your academic advisor or program staff to talk about ways to improve your grades in the second half of the semester.

Virtual Walk-ins via Zoom

For "walk-in" office hours:

1. Complete the sign-in sheet during the designated hours to see your academic advisor.
2. Join via the link provided below for your Advisor based on the day and time. Students must be signed into Zoom using their UC Merced credentials.
3. You will enter a virtual Waiting Room until your Advisor is available.
4. Your Advisor will welcome you when it is your turn to speak with them.

Advisor walk-ins hours and links are posted at <https://ns-advising.ucmerced.edu/meet-your-advisor/advisor-walk-ins>.

When emailing your Advisor, make sure to:

- Use your UC Merced email
- Write your full name
- Include your student ID number
